Lydia and Caleb were born in Springfield — the other children in Boston.

David Chapin resided a few years near the center of the town of Springfield and afterwards removed to Boston where he was married and was made freeman in 1649 and where he died in 1672. Less is known of him than of any other child of Samuel.

(The Chapin Line).

This surname is variously spelled in the early records of England and America, Chapin, Chapun, Chapinne, Chalpin, and several explanations of it have been given. Rev. R. D. Chapin, of Allegan, Michigan, reports an interview with a well-educated Swiss physician who said he formerly lived in France and was at one time much interested in philological studies, especially the history of names. He stated that the name Chapin was one of the oldest and best names in France, dating from the Carlovingian era, and going back at least to the tenth century, perhaps earlier. He gives this story as to its probable origin: In some feudal scrimmage of the middle ages, one who had distinguished himself received a swordcut across his head, laying open his helmet, or headpiece. For this exploit he was knighted on the field and dubbed Capinatus, which means "decorated with a hat," and his coat-of-arms was made a hat with a slash in it, thence the name Capinatus, the particle of the law-Latin capino—and then, by the softening process of the French, made Chapin. Of course the root is caput, whence cap and chapeau. The Chapin coat-of-arms tends to verify the story.

(I) Deacon Samuel Chapin, the immigrant ancestor, was doubtless born in England, though the family, perhaps centuries before, came from France to England. Two immigrants of this name came to New England about the same time and both settled in Springfield. David Chapin was admitted a freeman there April 5, 1649, and was admitted an inhabitant of Boston in 1659. He was probably son of Deacon Samuel Chapin, though possibly a brother. Deacon Samuel Chapin came from England to Roxbury, Massachusetts, 1656, with several children. He settled permanently at Springfield, where he was admitted a freeman June 2, 1641, and was elected to a town office in 1642. The Chapins of this country are all descended from him, according to the best authorities. He was a distinguished man in church and state. He was deacon of the Springfield church, elected in 1638, and was employed to conduct services part of the time in 1656-57, when there was no minister in town. He was appointed commissioner to determine small causes October 10, 1652, and his commission was definitely extended by the general court in 1654. He married Cicely ———, who died February 8, 1682. He died November 11, 1675. His will, dated March 4, 1674, proved March 24, 1676, bequeathed to his wife, son Henry, and grandson, Thomas Gilbert. The widow's will mentions son, Henry Chapin, of Springfield, and Josiah Chapin, of Braintree; daughters Catherine, wife of Samuel Marshfield, Sarah Thomas, and Hannah Hitchcock; Henry Gilbert. Her son Japhet was executor. Children: Japhet, mentioned below; Henry, died young, April 29, 1668; Henry, died August 15, 1718; Catharine, died February 4, 1712; David, born in England, probably not a child of the wife Cicely; Josiah, died September 10, 1726, at Braintree; Sarah, died August 5, 1684; Hannah, born December 2, 1644, Springfield. The order of birth is not certain.

(II) Japhet, son of Deacon Samuel Chapin, was born October 15, 1643, and died February 20, 1712, at Chicopee, Massachusetts. He married (first), July 22, 1664, Abalien or Abilanah Cooley, who died at Chicopee, November 17, 1710, daughter of Benjamin Cooley. The gravestones of Japhet and his wife have been removed to the new cemetery in Springfield. He married (second), May 31, 1711, Dorothy Root, of Enfield. She married (second), in 1720, Obadiah Miller, of Enfield. He settled first at Milford, Connecticut, where he was living November 16, 1669, when he took a deed from Captain John Pyncheon. March 9, 1666, John Pyncheon deeded to his father, Deacon Samuel, the greater part of the land in the valley between the Chicopee river and Williamsett Brook. The latter piece of land Samuel deeded to his son Japhet, April 16, 1673, and there the latter built his house at the upper end of Chicopee street, northwest of the house lately owned by Henry Sherman. Japhet was in the fight at Turner's Falls, in 1676, in King Philip's war. He was a volunteer, and his son Thomas was grantee of a large tract of land given to the soldiers and their descendants by the general court. Chapin, like his father, was of great piety, a bulwark of the Puritan faith. Children: Samuel, born July 4, 1655; Sarah, March 16, 1662; Thomas, May 10, 1671; John, May 14, 1674; Ebenezer, June 26, 1677; Hannah, June 21, 1679, died July 7, 1679; Hannah, July 18, 1680, taken captive by the Indians and kept in Canada two years; David, November 16, 1682; Jonathan, February 20, 1685, died March 1, 1686; Jonathan, September 23, 1688.

(III) Ebenezer, son of Japhet Chapin, was born in Chicopee, June 26, 1677, and died in Enfield, Connecticut, December 13, 1772. He married, December, 1702, Ruth, daughter of Abel Janes, of Northampton. She died January 18, 1736. They had eleven sons, six of whom settled on Somers Mount and had farms adjoining. On the homestead in Enfield six generations have lived, each Ebenezer by name, and five generations are buried in one lot in the cemetery there. Children, born at Enfield: Rachel, August 27, 1703; Ebenezer, September 23, 1705; Noah, October 25, 1707; Seth, February 27, 1709; Catherine, January 4, 1711; Moses, August 24, 1712; Aaron, September 28, 1714; Elias, October 22, 1716; Reuben, September 3, 1718; Charles, December 26, 1720; David, mentioned below; Elisha, April 18, 1725; Phineas, June 26, 1726.

(IV) David, son of Ebenezer Chapin, was born August 13, 1722, at Enfield, Connecticut, and died at New Hartford, aged forty years. He married Martha Allen. Their daughter Hannah, born 1751, married Theodore Gilbert Jr. (see Gilbert).

COLE James Cole, the immigrant ancestor, came to this country probably from county Essex, England, and settled in Hartford, Connecticut, with the founders under Hooker. His name is on the list of original settlers on the monument at Hartford. His home lot was on Main street. He was a cooper by trade. His will was dated in 1652. His widow died February 20, 1678-79. Children: Abigail, married Daniel Sullivan; John, mentioned below; perhaps others.

(II) John, son of James Cole, was born in England. He was admitted a freeman at Hartford, in 1655, and was a constable there in 1657. He owned eleven lots of land, comprising eighty acres. His will was dated August 4, 1683, and proved March 4, 1688. Children: John; Job; Samuel, mentioned below; Mary, born June 27, 1654; Anne, married ——— Benton; Lydia, married John Wilson; Nathaniel.

(III) Samuel, son of John Cole, was born in Hartford. His will was dated March 14, 1693, and he died March 16, 1693. He married Mary ———, who died in March, 1693. Children, born in Hartford: Samuel, 1673; Ichabod; John; Jonathan, mentioned below; Elizabeth, married Richard Smith; Dorothy; Hannah.

(IV) Jonathan, son of Samuel Cole, was born about 1683, at Hartford. He lived in East Hartford and Manchester, Connecticut. Children: Jonathan; Mary, married John Kendall; Hannah; David, mentioned below.

(V) David, son of Jonathan Cole, was born about 1710. He married Hannah ———, who was appointed guardian of their children at Hartford, in 1769. The probate records state that he was presumably dead, not having been heard from for nearly seven years. Children: Samuel, born 1755; David, mentioned below.

(VI) David (2), son of David (1) Cole, was born in Hartford, in 1756. He settled in the adjacent town of Glastonbury, Connecticut, and was a soldier in the revolution from that town (p. 100, History of Glastonbury), in 1777. He appears to have left Glastonbury before 1790, and may have settled in New York state, where various others of this family located.

(VII) Nathan, son of David (2) Cole, was born about 1780-90, in Glastonbury, Connecticut. He married Laura Mills, of East Hartford, Connecticut. He settled at Trenton, Oneida county, New York.

(VIII) James (2), son of Nathan Cole, was born at Trenton, New York, March 9, 1816. He was educated in the public schools. In 1843 he came to Fulton, New York, and engaged in the furniture trade and undertaking business. He married (first) Mary W. Cummings. He married (second) Mary W. Prime, of Huntington, Long Island. He died May 1, 1900. Child by first wife: J. Wendell, born in Trenton, New York, resides in Columbus, Ohio. Children by second wife: Edward P., mentioned below; Harland P.; George W.

(IX) Edward P., son of James (2) Cole, was born in Trenton, Oneida county, New York, June 20, 1851. He attended the public schools of his native town and Fulton, and Falley Seminary. He came to Fulton with his father's family in 1860. After completing his education he entered the employ of his father in the furniture store, and in 1880 was admitted to partnership. When his father died he succeeded to the business. The store was established in 1851 and is now the largest in its line in the city. Mr. Cole is one of the leading undertakers of the city. He was coroner of the county from January 1, 1889, to 1892. He is a charter member of the Benev-

Dear Helen--

Thank you for your letter and chart, showing your husband's Chapin ancestry.

My Chapin line comes down from Deacon Samuel^{1} through Japhet^{2}, Thomas^{3}, Japhet^{4} and Hepzibah^{5}, who married Lt. John Miller of W. Springfield, Mass. So, you see, we share only Deacon Samuel.

I see you have the same dates for Samuel and wife, Cicely, as I have, and I suppose that you have consulted the "Chapin Family", by Orange Chapin, 1862. I have found this book to be quite reliable, as I have checked quite a few facts given there with other records I have found, and they check out very well.

There was one instance--the matter of a single "o", that led me astray, for a while. The wife of Japhet^{2} was given as "Abilenah Cooley", whereas I found, eventually, that she was "Abilenah Coley"!

Last summer, when we were in Massachusetts, we learned, via the Massachusetts Bicentennial Commemorative Guide, that there is a very fine bronze statue to the memory of Deacon Samuel^{1} Chapin in Springfield. We found it and my husband took color photos of it, and they turned out lovely. If you should be in Springfield, any time, you might like to look this up. In case you don't have one of the guides, I'll copy what it says about Sam's statue:

"Merrick Park, a small parcel of land at the corner of State and Chestnut streets, was saved from destruction by a group of concerned citizens who, in 1877 bought the area and gave it to the city for 999 years. The bronze Puritan on the rise of Merrick Park has become a symbol of Springfield's early history. The statue of Deacon Samuel Chapin stands where the man himself once planted his Puritan beliefs upon arriving in the New World. The monument was sculpted in 1877 by Augustus St. Gaudens for the deacon's descendant, Chester W. Chapin, president of the Boston and Albany Railroad."

I note you have Appleton ancestry on your chart. I, also, have Appletons, in my line, but it's pretty far back. Joanna Appleton married Richard^{1} Gildersleeve who was from Hertfordshire, Eng. There was a Samuel Appleton at Ipswich, Mass., in 1636. He came from Little Waldingfield, Suffolk, Eng., and was born there in 1586. I don't know whether Joanna and Samuel were related. There were supposed to be books on this family by I.A. Jewett (1850); John Appleton (1867); and W.S. Appleton (1873 and 1874). I haven't gotten around to checking on this, yet.

I don't know whether this has been of any help to you, but it is nice to have gotten in touch with someone who is interested in some of the same people.

Sincerely,
Jeanne

tive member of the Republican party from its organization in 1856 to the time of his death, and a leader for more than twenty-five years. He was an able and convincing campaign speaker, and his services were always in demand during times of political strife and stress. He took a keen interest in town affairs as well as those of the state and nation, and served the incorporated village of Potsdam as president. He was chief of the fire department in his younger days. He was interested in agriculture and was president of the Raquette River and St. Regis Valley Agricultural Society. He was interested also in educational affairs and for several years was secretary of the State Normal School at Potsdam and trustee of the St. Lawrence Academy. In 1890 he was honored with the degree of Master of Arts by Middlebury College. He was a member of the County and State Bar associations. He died August 9, 1909.

He married, in 1857, Mary J., daughter of Alpheus Wright, of Henvelton, New York. Children: Mabel, married Frank Eugene Hawthorne (see Hawthorne VIII); Thurlow; Jennie, deceased in childhood; Kittie, deceased in childhood; Hattie, Alice, deceased in childhood; Bessie.

CHAPIN This surname is variously spelled in the early records of England and America, Chapin, Chapun, Chapinne, Chalpin, and several explanations of the name have been given. Rev. R. D. Chapin of Allegan, Michigan, reports an interview with a well-educated Swiss physician who said he formerly lived in France and was at one time much interested in philological studies, "especially the history of names." He said that the name Chapin was one of the oldest and best names in France, dating from the Carlovingian era, going back at least to the tenth century, perhaps earlier. He gives this story as to its probable origin. In some feudal scrimmage of the middle ages, one who had distinguished himself got a sword-cut across his head, laying open his helmet or headpiece. For this exploit he was knighted on the field and dubbed Capinatus, which means "decorated with a hat," and his coat-of-arms was made a hat with a slash in it, thence the name Capinatus, the participle of the law—Latin capino—and then by the softening process of the French made Capin—Chapin. Of course the root is caput, whence cap and chapeau. The Chapin coat-of-arms tends to verify the story.

(I) Deacon Samuel Chapin, the immigrant ancestor, was doubtless born in England, though the family perhaps centuries ago came from France to England. Two immigrants of this name came to New England about the same time, and both settled in Springfield. David Chapin was admitted a freeman there April 5, 1649, and was admitted an inhabitant of Boston in 1658. He was probably son of Deacon Samuel Chapin, though possibly a brother. Deacon Samuel Chapin came from England to Roxbury, Massachusetts, 1636, with several children. He settled permanently at Springfield, where he was admitted a freeman June 2, 1641, and was elected to a town office in 1642. The Chapins of this country are all descended from him, according to the best authorities. He was a distinguished man in Church and State. He was deacon of the Springfield Church, elected in 1649, and was employed to conduct services part of the time in 1656-57, when there was no minister in town. He was appointed commissioner to determine small causes, October 10, 1652, and his commission was indefinitely extended by the general court in 1654. He married Cicely ———, who died February 8, 1682. He died November 11, 1675. His will, dated March 4, 1674, and proved March 24, 1675, bequeathed to his wife, son Henry and grandson Thomas Gilbert. The widow's will mentions son Henry Chapin of Springfield and Josiah Chapin of Braintree; daughters Catharine, wife of Samuel Marshfield, Sarah Thomas and Hannah Hitchcock; Henry Gilbert. Her son Japhet was executor. Children: 1. Japhet, born October 15, 1642, mentioned below. 2. Henry, died young, April 29, 1668. 3. Henry, died August 15, 1718. 4. Catharine, died February 4, 1712. 5. David, born in England; probably not a child of the wife Cicely. 6. Josiah, died September 10, 1726, at Braintree. 7. Sarah, died August 5, 1684. 8. Hannah, born December 2, 1644, in Springfield. The order of birth of the preceding is not known.

(II) Japhet, son of Samuel Chapin, was born October 15, 1642, and died February 20, 1712, at Chicopee, Massachusetts. He married (first), July 22, 1664, Abilene or Abilenah Cooley, who died at Chicopee, November 17, 1710, daughter of Benjamin Cooley. The gravestones of Japhet and his wife Abilene have been removed to the new cemetery in Springfield. He married (second), May 31, 1711, Dorothy Root of Enfield. She married (second), in 1720, Obadiah Miller of Enfield. He settled first at Milford, Connecticut, where he was living November 16, 1669, when he took a deed from Captain John Pyncheon. March 9, 1666, John Pyncheon deeded to his father Deacon Samuel the greater part of the land in the valley between the Chicopee river and Williamsett brook. The latter piece of land Samuel deeded to his son Japhet April 16, 1673, and there the latter built his house at the upper end of Chicopee street, northwest of the house lately owned by Henry Sherman. Japhet was in the fight at Turner's Falls, in 1676, in King Philip's war. He was a volunteer, and his son Thomas was grantee of a large tract of land given to the soldiers and their descendants by the general court of Massachusetts. Like his father, Chapin was a man of great piety, a bulwark of the Puritan faith. Children: 1. Samuel, born July 4, 1665. 2. Sarah, born March 16, 1668. 3. Thomas, born May 10, 1671. 4. John, born May 14, 1674, mentioned below. 5. Ebenezer, born June 26, 1677. 6. Hannah, born June 21, 1679; died July 7, 1679. 7. Hannah, born July 18, 1680; taken captive by the Indians and kept in Canada two years. 8. David, born November 16, 1682. 9. Jonathan, born February 20, 1685; died March 1, 1686. 10. Jonathan, born September 23, 1688.

(III) John, son of Japhet Chapin, was born May 14, 1674, and married Sarah Bridgman of Northampton (intentions dated January 24, 1702). He died June 1, 1759, and his wife May 21, 1756. Children: 1. Sarah, born November 23, 1702. 2. Jemima, born January 5, 1705. 3. John, born October 8, 1706. 4. Miriam, born March 5, 1713. 5. Phineas, born September 23, 1715, mentioned below. 6. Stephen, born May 29, 1718. 7. Asahel, born December 20, 1721. 8. Eleazer, born January 27, 1725-26.

(IV) Phineas, son of John Chapin, was born September 23, 1715, and married, February 1, 1739, Bethia, daughter of Benjamin and Sarah Chapin. He died October 11, 1788, and his wife May 1, 1793. Children: 1. Bethia, born 1740. 2. Phares, born July 23, 1742, died August 27, 1755. 3. Phineas, born March 1, 1747. 4. Asenath, born May 2, 1750. 5. John, born May 1, 1753, mentioned below. 6. Silas, born September 10, 1755.

(V) John (2), son of Phineas Chapin, born May 1, 1753, married, August 5, 1775, Margaret Ely. He spent most of his life in Chicopee, but the latter part in the state of New York, where he died, aged nearly a hundred years. He came to Ogdensburg in 1800 with seven sons and four daughters. Children: 1. Margaret, married Collins Brown. 2. John, mentioned below. 3. Jube. 4. Mary, married Mattoon Day. 5. Horace. 6. Eli.

(VI) John (3), son of John (2) Chapin, was born about 1780 and probably went to New York state with his father, before 1790. He died in 1856, aged seventy-five years, in Ogdensburg. We find in the census of 1790 that his father John Chapin was at Granville and had in his family three males over sixteen, three under that age and four females. John settled in Ogdensburg about 1800. He had a hotel on State street. He married Abigail Thrasher, who died in June, 1836. Children: David M., Elizabeth, Mary, Orphia, James, Charles and Henry.

(VII) David Martin, eldest son of John (3) Chapin, was born in Oswegatchie, St. Lawrence county, New York, near Ogdensburg, April 22, 1806. He attended the district schools and by determined effort secured a good education, preparing for college under Rev. Jonathan Gale in Oneida county, and Professor Grosvenor at Rome, New York, finishing the sophomore year in Hamilton College, and returning to Ogdensburg in 1830 he taught a select school three years, and at the same time studied law in the office of Hon. James G. Hopkins. He was admitted to the bar and began to practice in 1836. Subsequently he was admitted to practice in the federal courts. He was a successful lawyer. Originally a Democrat, he joined the Republican party when it was organized and was active in supporting its principles and candidates. In April, 1861, he was appointed by President Lincoln collector of customs for the Oswegatchie district, and held the office until 1866. His later years were devoted mainly to his insurance business, and to negotiating mortgages and other loans, and he commanded a large share of the fire insurance business of this section. He was a prominent member, and for many years an elder of the Presbyterian Church of Ogdensburg. He died in 1879.

He married, March 15, 1838, Mary Elsie, daughter of Joseph and Lavinia York. Her father was a pioneer of Oswegatchie from Vermont; sheriff in 1812-13; taken prisoner by the British during the war; member of the legislature. Children, born at Ogdensburg: 1. Mary Lavinia, married Captain George B. Bacon, who served in the navy in the civil war, afterward held position in custom house in New York city; children: Mary E. and Sophia Louise Bacon. 2. Joseph York, mentioned below. 3. Sophia Elsie, married Jacob B. Wells (deceased), and had Theodore Wells. 4. Louise Elsie, married M. Seymour. 5. David John, died in infancy.

(VIII) Joseph York, son of David Martin Chapin, was born in Ogdensburg, August 4, 1843. He was educated in the public schools of his native town and at Hamilton College, from which he was graduated in the class of 1866. He studied law in the office of his father and was admitted to the bar in 1868. He practiced law until his father died in 1879, when he succeeded to his father's extensive insurance business, and to that he has devoted his attention chiefly since that time. He is a Republican, and was supervisor of the town for two years. During the past twenty years or more he has been special surrogate of the county of St. Lawrence. In religion he is a Presbyterian. He is a charter member of the Ogdensburg Club. Mr. Chapin is unmarried, and resides in Ogdensburg.

IVES The surname Ives is derived from the name McIver or Ives, Gaelic, meaning chief or leader, and the family in England doubtless takes its name from St. Ives, county Huntington, England, or some other locality, though it may have been adopted from a personal name, as many other surnames have been. John Ives, of the Manor Woodhos, in Orington, Norfolk, left his estate to his son Thomas, then less than twenty years old. The father died October 23, 1568.

(I) Captain William Ives, believed to have been of the county Norfolk family, was born in England; he came to Boston in the ship "True Love" in 1635. In 1639 he located at New Haven, Connecticut, his name appearing in the civil compact dated June 4, 1639, and in the allotment to the first settlers. He and his wife had seats in the meeting house at New Haven in 1646. Children: 1. John, married, in 1667, Han-

The above order of the children (which is the basis of the line numbering in this genealogy) is that given in the Orange Chapin Genealogy of 1862.

"The beginning of the Chapin family is altogether creditable. We may well be satisfied that it should start with this genuine old Puritan (Deacon Samuel Chapin) and what he did, with his fellow pioneers, to open the American Continent and on it to found a city and to establish a model Christian Republic".

"The rolls of heraldry, even if they could show the name linked with royal or princely blood, would add nothing to the true nobility of its origin. It belongs peculiarly to this country, and the sphere of its highest dignity and honor was no doubt ordained to be here. Our chief anxiety should be to maintain and advance its true nobility by lives and deeds worthy of such a father".

Pres. Aaron L. Chapin.

Lydia and Caleb were born in Springfield — the other children in Boston.

David Chapin resided a few years near the center of the town of Springfield and afterwards removed to Boston where he was married and was made freeman in 1649 and where he died in 1672. Less is known of him than of any other child of Samuel.

Dear Helen,

I really am sorry not to have returned your material on the Chapins before this. I have gone through it and have copied some of it onto my data. Thank you very much for lending it to me.

We finally had a warm day for me to begin putting in some plants, our daughter is home from Michigan State U. for the summer, we need to see about having our house repainted and all the other things that summer brings to keep us busy. I just don't have as much time as I would like for genealogy. I am trying to make myself get caught up with letters that need answering before too much time goes by.

Thanks again and if you run accross anything interesting on the Chapins please keep me in mind. Also if there is anything that I might be able to do for you in this area let me Know.

Sincerely,

Jolyne Sample

* Samuel is supposed to have been a Huguenot. The name was honorable in France as far back as the 10th century, when a Frenchman won a coat of arms and the soubriquet of "Capinatus" from a cut on his head, received in battle. The cap itself, with a cut in it, and the sword lying across it, became the coat of arms of the C. family, and this heraldic device survives in the American branch. It is supposed that Samuel's father fled first to Holland; whence, after marrying Cicely, a French maiden, he rem. to Dartmouth, Eng.; and emig. to Roxbury, N. E., where, with several children, he settled about 1635; and finally, 1642, or a little later, rem. to Springfield, Mass., where he became a deacon in the S. Church. His sons, Henry, the Selectman, and Japhet became interested in what is now Chicopee, at the lower end of which street H. built a house, while Japhet built at the upper end. H. had five ch., J. ten; of these eight were boys, and those eight boys begat eighty-seven children. — Mason A. Green's Hist. of Springfield, 175.

INTRODUCING IMPROVED NOTICES . . .

With this mailing comes a major change in the notices you receive regarding your Northwestern Mutual policy. After a great deal of research into the preferences of policyowners, we have revised nearly every notice you receive from the company.

We believe this is a unique undertaking in the insurance industry and that it will provide you with notices that are easy to read, that provide important information and that, above all, you'll understand.

If you have any questions regarding the new notices, please call your Northwestern Mutual agent, the nearest Northwestern Mutual agency or the Policyowner Services Department of the home office in Milwaukee at (414) 271-1444.

We also invite your written questions, comments or suggestions. They should be addressed to:

NOTICE FOR CUSTOMERS WHO LEASE AT&T TELEPHONE EQUIPMENT

On January 1, 1984, customers whose telephones were provided by Michigan Bell automatically began leasing them from AT&T Information Systems as a result of the Michigan Bell separation from AT&T.

Since that date, customers who lease their equipment from AT&T Information Systems have received their monthly bills in the Michigan Bell statement. This is the last month that Michigan Bell will bill for AT&T Information Systems. All amounts included on this bill should be paid to Michigan Bell, not AT&T Information Systems.

Beginning next month, customers will receive a separate bill directly from AT&T Information Systems for leased telephone equipment.

If you have any questions, please call the appropriate number that appears on the AT&T Information Systems portion of your bill.

Dear Henlen,

I finally had prints made from the slide of Dea. Samuel Chapin. I am glad to have them. I waited to thank you for the print and the Chapin material that you were kind enough to send me until I could at least return the slide to you. The material I will have to get at after the holidays when I can take a breath and look it over carefully. I will return it to you after that. I hope this is OK by you.

The enclosed page from the 'The Chapin Genealogy'I came across at Fort Wayne and recognized the building as one only a few blocks from our home. We drove by it and sure enough it and the picture are one and the same. I called there and they said that at one time it was an orphanage. Today it is called the "Link Crisis Intervention Center. The building is the same except there are two small staues on the corners of the roof of the brick part of the building.

I was told that adoption files are protected by the state of Michigan and are not public. This must have been where V.S. jr.'s children were as I know of no other orphanage around here today.

I did check the death records at our court house from about 1901 threw 1913 but didn't find Mabel Root amoung them. Sorry!

On the fact sheet you sent it states that Mable died in Osceola Co, MI. That county is quite a ways north of us but when we go north again perhaps I could check out their records for Mabel. We are in Berrien Co. which is right across the lake from Chicago.

Wish I could have been more help for you. Let me know if there is any thing else I can do for you and thanks again for every thing you sent me.

Yes! we had fun at Fort Wayne and we did find quite a bit of info. and they accepted my four little volumes I had done on some branches of my family and seemed glad to have them. I was pleased to have them in such a fine genealogy library.

Sincerely,

Jolyne Sample

As Governor of Massachusetts he signed the charter of Harvard College and was a directing mind in its affairs. He was a liberal patron of the Free Schoole in Roxbury. He married (1) Dorothy ———, (2) Catherine Hackburn (Hagbourne). He died in Roxbury, July 31, 1653.

M^RIS Dorothy Dudley, wife of Mr. Thomas Dudley.

John Trumbell, came to Roxbury in 1639. Freeman May 13, 1640. Removed to Rowley.

Gowen Anderson. Freeman May 13, 1640. An original donor of the Free Schoole in Roxbury. Removed to Boston.

———, Wife of Gowen Anderson.

Robert Pepper, a man servant, m. Eliza Johnson. Freeman May 10, 1643. An original donor of the Free Schoole. Given leave to brew and sell penny beare and cakes and white bread. Died July 7, 1685, "an old X^istian."

DEACON SAMVEL CHAPIN

Dubuque, Jones & Clayton Cos IA
Chapman

to New York, where his death occurred. Our subject's father was a cabinet maker, furniture dealer and undertaker, which calling he followed after his location in Cattaraugus County, where he continued to make his home until his death, which occurred when about seventy years of age. His wife, Abigail (Sherman) Wellman, was also born and passed her entire life in New York State, of which her father, Theodore Sherman, was a native. Fred L., of this sketch, is the eldest in a family of three sons and two daughters, all of whom are living. He grew to manhood in his native place, attending the common schools and the academy, thus obtaining an excellent education, as he made the best of his opportunities.

When nineteen years of age Mr. Wellman left the parental roof and came to Iowa, arriving in Monona April 7, 1859. Up to this time he had for several years, during intervals of his school life, worked at the trade with his father, and after his arrival in this place he hired out to neighboring farmers by the month for some time. He thus obtained a practical knowledge of agriculture, and as the pursuit of farming was congenial to him he decided to become a farmer on his own account. Accordingly, after his marriage he located on a place in Monona Township, devoting himself to its cultivation and improvement exclusively for many years. His home is still on this farm, which is not far distant from the village.

July 3, 1863, Mr. Wellman married Alice Reding, who was born in Indiana and with her parents came to this locality when only two years of age. After a happy married life of eleven years the devoted wife and mother was called to her final rest; her death occurred November 3, 1874. The only son, Lewis, is at home with his father and is a young man of good education and ability.

Our subject has built up a good reputation as an honorable and enterprising business man, and his patronage is constantly increasing. He has invested the proceeds of his business ventures with good judgment and has realized therefrom a goodly sum. He owns the Opera Block in Monona and many other residences and buildings in the place. In the disposal of his means he is generous and lends a helping hand to worthy enterprises, churches and benevolencies. He is one of the Directors in the Monona State Bank and is interested in other local industries. A strong Republican, he served as Postmaster for four years with credit to himself and was Township Trustee for twenty years. He is a member of the Republican County Board, always attends the State Conventions and is a vigorous worker in the ranks of his party. Socially he belongs to Monona Lodge No. 156, I. O. O. F., and to the Ancient Order of United Workmen.

ASAHEL CHAPIN, a well known and highly respected citizen of McGregor, is an attorney-at-law in this place, and is a man of wide reading and general information. He has been engaged in legal work as an active member of the Bar for nearly a quarter of a century, and has built up an admirable reputation as a man of unusual acumen and good judgment on all matters pertaining to the profession.

Our subject bears the same Christian name as his father, who was a native of New England, having been born in Massachusetts. He came to the west in 1851, making his home in Galena, Ill., and later removing to Dubuque. He was a minister in the Baptist Church, having been for four years pastor of the first Baptist Congregation in Galena. He then moved to Benton County, Iowa, locating on a farm, where he remained about six years. After he came to Dubuque, he was a minister in the First Baptist Church at that place for ten years, and always took a great interest in educational matters. He was a stanch Republican and did campaign work, in company with Owen Lovejoy, in Illinois. After a long and useful life he was called from his labors in Freeport, Ill., in 1892, at the age of eighty-eight years.

The Chapin family were originally from England, and early settled in Massachusetts. It is known that one Samuel Chapin, from which our subject is a direct descendant, emigrated from England, locating near the place where Springfield, Mass., now stands, and there a large statue modeled by St. Gaudens, the celebrated sculptor, has been erected to his memory. The paternal grandfather of our subject was Steven Chapin, whose birth occurred in the Bay State, and who was an extensive manufacturer of boots and shoes. His mother was Catherine (Suthland) Chapin, of Jamestown, N. Y., and daughter of Judson Suthland.

Like his forefathers on the paternal side, Asahel Chapin, of this sketch, was born in Massachusetts, Holyoke being the place of his nativity, which occurred January 13, 1846. When five years old he was brought to Iowa by his parents, where he was reared to man's estate on a farm, receiving practical experience in agricultural affairs. Until nineteen years of age his education was mainly acquired in the district school, but at that time he entered the State University, at Iowa City, where he pursued his studies until reaching the junior year. He then began reading law in the office of Wilson & Doud, at that time a prominent law firm of Dubuque, where his father was then located. After pursuing his legal studies for two years, he passed the necessary examinations, and in 1872 was admitted to the Bar at Dubuque, where he began his active career, practicing for one year.

In 1873 Mr. Chapin formed a partnership with Platt Smith and H. B. Foulk, under the firm name of Smith, Foulk & Chapin, which continued as such for a period of three years. It was in 1875 that Mr. Chapin came to McGregor and entered into partnership with J. T. Stoneman. The firm of Stoneman & Chapin continued in general practice until 1880, when it was dissolved, and since that time, a period of fourteen years, Mr. Chapin has been conducting business for himself.

Our subject was married in 1877 to Miss Maggie Stoneman. Her father, J. T. Stoneman, was one of the pioneers and early settlers of McGregor. To our subject and his wife were born two daughters, Florence and Esther, and they have a very pleasant and hospitable home.

As a member of the School Board and in other effective ways, Mr. Chapin has shown his interest in educational matters. Socially, he belongs to Duncan Lodge No. 36, K. P., being a charter member of the same. He uses his right of franchise in favor of nominees of the Republican party, and is an earnest and ardent supporter of the principles set forth by that organization. He is a man who bears an enviable reputation in this locality for integrity and uprightness of character, and his many friends will be pleased to peruse the history of so worthy a citizen.

REUBEN S. HUNTINGTON. One of the prettiest homes in Edgewood is owned and occupied by the subject of this sketch, who is a prominent business man of the place. A native of New York, he was born in Tompkins County, March 5, 1839, and is one of two sons. In fact, so far back as the genealogical record can be traced, there have been two sons in each generation. The paternal grandfather, John S. Huntington, was born in England, whence accompanied by his brother he emigrated to America and made settlement in New England. His brother, Lewis, went further west and all trace of him was lost, although it is believed that C. P. Huntington, the millionaire railroad man, is one of his descendants.

The parents of our subject, Samuel and Polly (Higley) Huntington, were natives of Vermont, the former of whom died when R. S. was only one and one-half years old. He had one brother, John, who throughout the latter part of his life was engaged in milling on the Hudson River. There he died in January, 1885, at the age of ninety years. He had two sons, Walter and Lewis, of whom the latter came west, but the former continued to reside in the place of his birth.

During the War of 1812 John S. Huntington was drafted into the army, but our subject's father went as a substitute, serving through the entire period of the conflict. Subsequently a pension was applied for, but there was considerable difficulty in proving that Samuel was entitled to the pension of John S. Huntington. However, when the facts of the case became fully known, the pension

In addition to the foregoing, there were at Boston, Mass., in 1702, Peter Gilbert, and in 1717, Barnabas Gilbert, and in 1731, Benjamin Gilbert. At Hull, Mass., in 1714, was a William Gilbert. All these had wives and families, but their descendants have not been met with in the large amount of research done by the compilers of this volume.

Thomas Gilbert

of Mt. Wollaston (Braintree), Windsor, and Wethersfield

Thomas Gilbert was born in England about 1582. The exact date of his birth or baptism and the names of his parents are unknown. Statements as to his origin have been made which are mistaken or false. Many years ago, Mr. J. Gilbert Thornton published a small volume concerning Jonathan Gilbert of Hartford and some of his descendants. The work contains much that is of historical value, but Mr. Thornton did not know that Jonathan Gilbert was a son of Thomas Gilbert of Braintree. He hardly discusses the origin of Jonathan at all, but inclines to the hypothesis that he may have been a descendant of Sir Humphrey Gilbert.

More recently it has been stated that Richard Gilbert of North Petherwin in Devonshire, whose family bore the same arms as the Gilberts of Compton in the same county, removed to North Burlingham in Norfolk, was lord of Walcote Hall, and had a grandson, John Gilbert, who lived at Little Ellingham in Norfolk. This son, John Gilbert, married Ann and was the father of Jonathan Gilbert who came to New England. This pedigree is entirely fictitious, palmed off upon some Americans who were seeking for the ancestors of Jonathan Gilbert of Hartford. Although it is an utterly false pedigree, some reasons for its rejection will be given.

Harleian Mss. 1163-1164 in the British Museum give Richard Gilbert of North Petherwin as the son of William Gilbert of Bridgerule in Cornwall and state that Richard, although married, died without issue. In 1914 a gentleman and genealogist, the best authority upon the records and families of Norfolk, wrote as follows: "Years ago I lived in the neighborhood of North Burlingham and saw the registers and knew members of the Gilbert family living in the district and amused myself by making a sketch pedigree. The Gilberts that I knew belonged to the family of Cantley and Chedgrave, and although I never could trace the precise connection with the old Burlingham family, I fancy there was a connection." He then gave the line of the lords of the manor of Walcote Hall in the following manner: "Robert Gilbert of North Burlingham died in 1485. His son Thomas died in 1508. Thomas was the father of Richard of North Burlingham who died in 1558, as lord of the manor, leaving sons Thomas, John and Richard. Thomas Gilbert, son of Thomas and Audrey, died in 1627, leaving sons Thomas and John, born in 1579, who died possibly in 1653. Thomas Gilbert, brother of this John, last lord of the manor, had only daughters who, with their husbands, sold the manor in 1654. It is very precarious to assume that John Gilbert, born in 1579, was identical with John Gilbert of Little Ellingham, which is twenty miles from North Burlingham, as the crow flies." The pedigree gives only the line of the lords of the manor, the younger sons being omitted. Probably there were numerous lines of Gilberts descending from the first Robert, who settled in the country around North Burlingham. John of Little Ellingham may have belonged to one of these.

The Gilbert Family - descendants of

Some of the efforts made to find the parentage of Thomas Gilbert of Braintree will be apropos. The late Frank Newton Gilbert of Portland, Ore., was much interested in this matter. Had he lived longer, it is probable that results would have been obtained. Mr. Gilbert caused to be examined all the Gilbert wills and administrations of the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, the records of which are at Somerset House in London. Gilberts from all parts of England were found, for this is by far the largest and oldest probate registry in England. Unfortunately, not a single clue to any Thomas Gilbert that could have been the Thomas Gilbert of Braintree was found. Mr. Gilbert undoubtedly would have continued the search in other probate registries of England, of which there are a considerable number, but his death in 1916 put an end to the search.

Another line of research which seemed promising was suggested by the fact that Mary Gilbert, widow of Eleazer Gilbert, late of Bermondsey in the county of Surrey, in England, sold land in Wethersfield, Conn., which had come to her husband from his father, Josiah Gilbert. The date of the sale was Mar. 15, 1708/9. [Recorded in Wethersfield Deeds, vol. 4, p. 26.] Records show that Eleazer Gilbert became a mariner or seaman in the Royal Navy and died at Bermondsey. Search was made there for Gilberts. Many were found recorded in the parish register of Bermondsey, including more than one Thomas Gilbert. One of these married in 1616 Sarah Cooper. This one seemed very possibly to be the Thomas Gilbert sought, but later his will was found, showing that he died in England, a leather merchant. Hence this attempt failed.

Another line of research, which has not been followed out, is suggested by the following facts. Mrs. Katherine Harrison of Wethersfield, Conn., widow of John Harrison, had a comfortable estate from her husband. She was much persecuted and her estate much damaged by enemies in Wethersfield.[3] This finally culminated in a charge of witchcraft against Mrs. Harrison. Witchcraft was at that time a capital crime and such a charge was a very serious matter for its victim. She defended herself with spirit, but was convicted. However, she was not executed, but managed to get away with her daughters to Westchester in the province of New York. Josiah Gilbert had been there in an earlier period and probably suggested Westchester as a safe refuge for Mrs. Harrison. There are several indications that the Gilberts of Hartford and Wethersfield were kindred in some degree to Mrs. Harrison or to her husband. An entry in Canterbury Marriage Licenses, Series I, p. 199, reads as follows: "Richard Harrison of St. George's, Canterbury, plumber, and Catherine Gilbert of St. John's in Thanet, widow, at St. George's." Date is June 22, 1609. This conjunction of names may be only a coincidence, and the persons mentioned have not been identified, but it may be that here is a possible clue to the origin of Thomas Gilbert of Braintree.

Another effort along different lines has been made by Mr. Clarence A. Torrey, a descendant of Thomas Gilbert and much interested in solving the problem of Thomas Gilbert's origin. Mr. Torrey has searched printed parish registers and other records of places in England for a Thomas Gilbert who might be identical with Thomas Gilbert, the emigrant. The effort has not been successful, but has revealed much else of importance and shows the magnitude of the problem of identification.

In 1654 the wife of Thomas Gilbert of Braintree, Windsor, and Wethersfield was Lydia Gilbert. She may not have been his first wife and it is possible that in the following list Thomas of Braintree may be included, but it must be remembered that the printed records form but a small proportion of the total of such records extant in England, some ten thousand parishes in all.

The earliest mention of Thomas Gilbert in any New England record is found in Boston Town Records (vol. 2, page 49 of the printed records). This is a record of grants of land to thirty-two men at Mt. Wollaston, formerly in the town of Braintree, but now within the limits of Quincy. The record in part is as follows:

"The same 24th day of twelfth month Feb. 1639 . . . and at the same meeting there was granted to Thomas Place of Mount Wollystone for five heads 20 acres there upon the covenant of 3s per acre. . . . The like to Thomas Gilbert of the same for 7 heads 28 acres there upon the same covenant of 3 shillings per acre." Thomas Gilbert's name stands eighth in the list of grantees, a position presumably of no significance. The expression "seven heads" means that his family consisted of the father and six sons, the female members not being considered in the grant. He had also a daughter Sarah and a servant or employee named Joel Jenkins. It thus appears that Thomas Gilbert with his large family and a servant was engaged in farming upon a grant of new land within the limits of the present town of Quincy from 1639 to 1644 or a little later. In 1668 the heirs of Thomas Gatlive of Braintree sold to Lieut. John Holbrook all their right to the mill, mill-ponds, water and water courses, commonage, feedings, messuages, tenements or dwelling houses, together with forty acres of upland lying near the said mill within a common fence, bounded with the said mill brook and pond toward the north and easterly with the land of Goodman Gilbert. [Suffolk County Deeds, vol. 5, p. 526.] Lands of Gregory Belcher are mentioned in this deed. As the site of the mill is known, the location of Gilbert's land can be approximated.[4]

A petition of fourteen of the men of Braintree, dated May, 1646, was addressed to the General Court "for the prswading or forcing Thomas Gilbert either to forbeare feeding yt iland or upland with certaine medowes of their environs, or else to lett it on reasonable termes to the petitioners." The Court determined that an order of Court made in 1643 applied to this case. [See Records of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay, vol. 2, p. 49 and vol. 3, p. 67.] It would appear that Thomas Gilbert had left Braintree, and was still holding privileges of pasturage in that time, possibly leaving cattle there in charge of his son Josiah Gilbert, who soon married Elizabeth Belcher, daughter of Gregory Belcher. The exact date of his departure is not known, but it was probably in 1644 that he went to Windsor, Conn. The reasons of his going can be surmised. For ten years previous to 1644, there had been a constant flow of settlers from Massachusetts Bay to the rich lands on the Connecticut. Gilbert joined the movement, hoping to better his condition.

Francis, Henry, and John Stiles, brothers, were early settlers in Windsor, Conn. Previous to Feb. 28, 1640/1, Francis Stiles held lands described as follows: "A homelot granted by the plantation, with some additions, thirteen and a quarter acres, bounded north by William Gaylord, Jr., south by John Stiles, west by Rocky Hill, east by his own meadow; also nine acres of meadow lying east of his home lot; also some addition in upland, thirty-two acres towards Pine Meadow, bounded north by Joseph Clark, south by Mr. St. Nicholas; also fifteen hundred acres east of the Great River."

[Recorded in vol. 2, p. 127 and pp. 56-7 of the record of Particular and Probate Court.]

Was Lydia Gilbert the wife or the daughter of Thomas Gilbert? Dr. Henry A. Stiles in his History of Ancient Windsor, makes Lydia the daughter of Thomas Gilbert and other writers have done the same. If Lydia was the daughter, she could not have been much more than twenty years of age in 1654 and at the time when Henry Stiles was shot, still younger. It was generally elderly women who were accused of witchcraft. The cooking, sewing and other household work done in the house when Stiles and Gilbert were associated in farming are much more likely to have been done by Gilbert's wife than by a supposed daughter. The same Lydia appears in the later generations of the Gilbert family. This would have been less likely to occur had Lydia been the daughter and not wife of Thomas Gilbert. After the death of Lydia, the home at Windsor was broken up, the family scattering in different directions, some to places outside the Colony. Thomas Gilbert left Windsor for good, and his older sons found a place for him on their leased farm at Nayaug. The view that Lydia was the wife and not the daughter is supported by a number of reasons, although the evidence is indirect and circumstantial. Those who hold that Lydia was a daughter and not the wife of Thomas Gilbert point to the item in the administrators' account "To charges of funeralls for him and wife" and assert that Gilbert's wife died about the time he did. The postponed charges for the funeral of the wife can be explained on the hypothesis that Jonathan and John Gilbert paid the funeral expenses of Mrs. Gilbert at the time of her death, and later collected it from their father's estate. Two other hypotheses are possible: that Lydia was not executed after all and died about the time Thomas did; or that he had married again and that the funeral refers to this unknown wife.

The account book of Henry Wolcott, planter at Windsor, in 1650 and 1653 has been preserved. Among the accounts for these years is one with a person whom Mr. Wolcott always calls Mr. Gilbert or Gilburd, never mentioning his Christian name. A personal examination of the ancient book showed that Wolcott wrote the name Gilbert or Gilburd in every instance. Hence it was supposed that the account was with Thomas Gilbert and his wife. But later consideration, taking into account the nature of the articles and commodities bought and exchanged, led to the conclusion that the wrong deduction had been made. Thomas Gilbert and his wife would have been unable to supply or produce the articles that this Mr. Gilbert gave to Mr. Wolcott in exchange for commodities received from him. There was in Windsor at this time a Mr. William Gibbard and his wife, a merchant of means, and he is probably the person mentioned in the Wolcott account. His name was sometimes written Gilbert. He removed to New Haven Colony and became a prominent man there, always mentioned with the title "Mr." before his name, whereas Thomas Gilbert never had this title, being obliged to content himself with the title "goodman."

It has been questioned by some that the persons named as heirs in the distribution of Thomas Gilbert's estate in 1663 were his children. The proof that this was the fact may be stated here. It is known from the Massachusetts Colonial Records that Sarah, daughter of Thomas Gilbert, then of Braintree, became the wife of Joel Jenkins. Since Sarah was entitled to a share in the estate it is certain that the others who were given a share in the distribution of the estate by the court were also children of Thomas Gilbert and hence her brothers. Jonathan Gilbert of Hartford in his will of 1674 makes "my brother John Gilbert" one of the overseers to help his wife Mary whom he had made executrix. In a deposition of 1684 Josiah Gilbert mentions "my brethren Jonathan and John Gilbert." Obadiah Gilbert of Fairfield in his will dated Aug. 23, 1674, makes "my Loving Brethren Jonathan Gilbert and Josiah Gilbert to be my overseers." As far as yet discovered, there is no other proof that Thomas Gilbert of Springfield and Ezekiel Gilbert of Lynn were sons of the first Thomas Gilbert of Braintree, Windsor and Wethersfield, except that contained in the distribution of the estate of Thomas Gilbert in 1663.

1. THOMAS^{1} GILBERT, born in England about 1582; died at Nayaug, then in the bounds of Wethersfield, Conn., but now in the parish of South Glastonbury, shortly before Sept. 5, 1659; married in England before 1618, LYDIA ——,* who probably died at Hartford, Conn., in January, 1654/5.

Children:

1 2 i. JONATHAN,^{2} b. abt. 1618; m. (1) MARY WHITE; (2) MARY WELLS.

3 ii. THOMAS, b. abt. 1620; m. CATHERINE (CHAPIN) BLISS.

3 iii. EZEKIEL, b. abt. 1622; living in 1664, when he was given a share in his father's estate. In 1647 he seems to have been living in or near Lynn, Mass., for in that year he was a witness in the cases of two men presented for beating their wives. [Records and Files of the Quarterly Courts of Essex County, Mass., vol. 1, p. 133.] He is supposed to have been a mariner. Nothing has been found to indicate that he had a wife or family.

4 4 iv. SARAH, b. abt. 1624; m. JOEL JENKINS.

5 5 v. JOHN, b. abt. 1626; m. AMY LORD.

6 6 vi. JOSIAH, b. abt. 1628; m. (1) ELIZABETH BELCHER; (2) MARY (HARRIS) WARD.

7 7 vii. OBADIAH, b. abt. 1630; m. ELIZABETH (BURR) OLMSTED.

* As Thomas Gilbert was over thirty-five years of age at the time of his eldest son's birth, it is possible that Lydia was not his first wife. The authority for his age is the Winthrop Medical Mss., which gave Thomas Gilbert's age in 1659 as 77.

Jonathan Gilbert, Son of Thomas

2. JONATHAN^{2} GILBERT (Thomas^{1}), eldest son of Thomas and Lydia Gilbert, born in England about 1618; died at Hartford, Conn., Dec. 19, 1682, in the 64th year of his age (gravestone in the Center Cemetery, Hartford).[6] An ancient family record which has come down in the line of his son, Jonathan Gilbert, Jr., says: "Dec. 19, 1682. My father Gilbert departed this life about half an hour after sundown, being aged 64 or thereabouts." Jonathan Gilbert married first, at Hartford, Jan. 29, 1645/6, MARY WHITE, baptized in the parish of Messing, Essex County, England, July 16, 1626; died at Hartford, about Dec. 1649; daughter of John and Mary (Leavitt) White of Messing and Hartford. He married second, about 1650, MARY WELLS, born about 1626; died at Hartford, Conn., July 3, 1700, in 74th year (gravestone); daughter of widow Frances Wells.[7]

The earliest mention of Jonathan Gilbert in Hartford records is his marriage, which occurred Jan. 29, 1645/6. It is probable that he had been living for some time, perhaps a year, in the town previous to that event. This would bring his arrival there very close to the date of his father's arrival at Windsor. After his marriage, Jonathan lived upon a lot near the corner of the present Sheldon and Governor Streets in Hartford, a portion of the lot of William Hills which he bought in 1648/9, Hills having moved across the Connecticut River to the locality still called Hockanum. The original lot was of one acre in extent. The northern part with Hills's original house had passed to the town of Hartford and this house was the first school house in Hartford, and was used as such for a number of years, housing the schoolmaster and his sixteen students, students of Latin Grammar. Gilbert lived upon the southern part of the original Hills lot in a small house. It was near the house of his father-in-law, Elder John White, who was, however, not an elder at this early date, the Second Church of Hartford not having been founded until 1669-70.

On Jan. 9, 1640, the town of Hartford gave liberty to Edward Hopkins and John Haynes "To sett up a mill & a bridge one ye Litell River ofer against the palisadoe att theare own proper charge." These were to be finished the following winter and to be kept in repair four years. This mill was on the north bank of Park River, just below the falls, which are near the present Welles Street. In 1655 a new and larger mill was built on about the same site. At a town meeting held June 6, 1646, liberty was given to the townsmen to exchange the mill house for Goodman Gilbert's house, he to have, "alowans of ground out of the meeting howse lot as they think may Resnabelly be spared," he to pay the town forty shillings. Thus the town became the owner of the whole of William Hills's home lot and Gilbert of

3. THOMAS^2 GILBERT (Thomas^{1}), born about 1620 in England; died in Springfield, Mass., June 5, 1662; married June 30 or July 1, 1655, CATHERINE (CHAPIN) BLISS, born in England about 1626; died at Springfield, Mass., Feb. 4, 1712/3; daughter of Deacon Samuel and Cicely (Penney) Chapin of Springfield and widow of Nathaniel Bliss. 2826 -27

Nothing is known of Thomas Gilbert, Jr., until his marriage in 1655. He was then about thirty-five years old. Under date of Mar. 2, 1642/3, the Particular Court ordered that William Ruscoe take into custody Thos: Gibbert, Lydia Bliss and two others, keep them on coarse diet, hard work and sharp correction. For what misdemeanor is not stated. This probably refers to Thomas Gilbert, Jr., then aged about 22 years. He may have been at Hartford, but more likely at Windsor, perhaps with his father, but of this there is no record. He probably left Windsor as the result of his mother's conviction for witchcraft but it is possible that he went to Springfield before that event. His first grant of land in Springfield bears date Jan. 3, 1655/6. He also had a grant at Fresh Water Brook (now Enfield) Feb. 12, 1660 [Springfield Records, Book 1, p. 199]; six acres of wet meadow on the back side toward the lower end of the Long Meadow [Book 1, p. 202]; twelve acres on the north side of Benjamin Cooley's land [Book 1, p. 205]. A place was allotted him Dec. 25, 1659, in the fourth seat in the meeting house. He was from the first a prominent citizen of Springfield, being elected to the office of selectman a year after he came to that town, being chosen as such in 1656/7 and again in 1660. Miles Morgan (ancestor of John Pierpont Morgan) and John Pynchon were selectmen at the same time. He was appraiser of livestock with Ens. John Cooper, Feb. 7, 1661 [Book 1, p. 214] and fence viewer in 1660. He bought land of Benjamin Cooley Aug. 27, 1660, and received permission to build a house near the Long Meadow gate. If he did so, it is possible to locate the house pretty exactly, for the Long Meadow gate was two or three miles south of the center of the present city of Springfield, where the upland approaches closest to the river bank. It is near the southern end of the present Forest Park of Springfield.

Springfield records state that he died in the morning of June 5, 1662, and was buried in the evening of the same day. He made his will two days before, and it is probable that his sickness was short and violent, although no tradition regarding it has come down to the present day.

Thomas Gilbert's land holdings at Springfield were recorded as follows:

Thomas Gilbert is possessed by purchase of Richard Fellows of three acres more or less of land in ye backer part of ye longmeadow, bounded north by Thomas Mirick, south by Alexander Edwards. Registered Jan. 20, 1659.

This three acres is by Richard Fellows sold & passed away to Thomas Gilbert his Heirs & assigns forever, this 20th January 1659.

Also by purchase from Samuel Marshfield of three acres of land more or less, in ye backer part of ye longmeadow, bounded north by Thomas Mirick, south by Alexander Edwards.

Feb. 12, 1660. There is granted to Thomas Gilbert 10 acres of medow on fresh water brook if there be soe much there above former grants.

March 13, 1660. There is granted to Benjamin Cooley and Thomas Gilbert 6 acres a peece of the wet meddow and low land on the back side & towards the lower end of ye Long meddow if soe much be there undisposed of. Also ther is granted to Thomas Gilbert twelve acres on the north side of Benjamin Cooleys grant abovesaid extending to another dingle northward.

Thomas Gilbert's will is recorded in vol. 1, p. 18, of the Old Hampshire County wills at Northampton, Mass., and the original will and inventory are on file.

I Thomas Gilbert of Springfield, sick in body, but sound in mind, doe here make & ordayne this my last will & testament, committing myself unto the hands of my mercifull father, whether to live or to dye, trusting that both shall be unto mee advantage through Jesus Christ my Lord.

Impris. I bequeath unto my sons and daughters which are in the first family seven pounds to each of them & also five pounds to that which my wife goes with, to bee paid to the girls at ye age of eighteen years, to ye sones at one and twenty. All the rest of my estate I leave unto my wife whom I make and ordayne my true and lawful executrix. And in case my wife doe marry againe, what estate remayns of mine then I give the one halfe thereof to her former children and the one halfe thereof to be distributed to my sons equally & in case any of my children doe dye before they come of age, his or their portion shall be divided amongst those sonnes yt doe survive.

And to ye end that my will be truly fulfilled I have desired my father Samuel Chapin and Nathaniel Ely to be overseers. I have hereunto sett my hand this third day of the 3d month, 1662.

Catherine Chapin, daughter of Samuel and Cicely Chapin, was born and baptized in the parish of Berry Pomeroy, Devonshire, England, in 1626. Her brother David Chapin was baptized at Paignton Jan. 4, 1624, and Catherine was the next child. She was named for her mother's sister, Catherine Penney, who was baptized at Paignton Sept. 30, 1599.

Catherine Chapin accompanied her parents to New England and they settled at Roxbury, Mass., sometime between the years 1635 and 1639. From Roxbury they removed in the autumn of 1642 to Springfield, Mass., a new settlement begun about two years before.

Catherine Chapin married first, at Springfield, Nov. 20, 1646, Nathaniel Bliss, who died Nov. 8, 1654. She married second, Thomas Gilbert, as has been related, survived him and married third, Samuel Marshfield of Springfield, who died May 8, 1692. She survived him about twenty years, dying at Springfield, Feb. 4, 1712/3. She was mother of four children by each of her three husbands and the ancestress of a numerous posterity, among whom was Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

- 4 14 iv. HENRY, b. Mar. 1, 1660/1; m. (1) ELIZABETH BELDEN; (2) MRS. MARY WHEAT.

4. SARAH[2] GILBERT (Thomas[1]), born in England about 1624; living 1664, but dead probably before July 4, 1687, the date of her husband's will, which does not mention her; married (banns published July 14, 1640), JOEL JENKINS, born in England; died before Nov. 2, 1688, when his will was proved.

Joel Jenkins is described as "servant" of Thomas Gilbert, who is called his "master" in the early records of Massachusetts Bay. At the publication of the banns, both are described as "of Braintree." [Winthrop Papers.] He removed from Braintree to Malden, Mass., where he died. He seems to have been one of the proprietors of the first settlement at Quinsigamond, now Worcester, Mass., but seems not to have actually resided there. An account of him and his descendants by Charles Nutt may be found in New England Historical and Genealogical Register, vol. 66 (1912), p. 268 ff.

Children:

- i. LYDIA,[3] b. Oct. 13, 1640; m. JOHN PAUL.

land at Oronoque in Stratford, lying on the Housatonic River. He and John Gilbert were related on their mother's side. They probably removed to Oronoque together. On the Stratford records there is a deed, dated Mar. 15, 1680, by which Nathaniel Foote conveyed this land to John Gilbert and later Foote removed to Branford, Conn. These facts are a good and natural reason for John Gilbert's going to Stratford. About twenty years later, two or three nephews of John Gilbert came to Stratford and there is evidence at Stratford that one of them was from Springfield. Considering these facts and the fact that there is no record of John Gilbert, Sr., in Springfield after his escape from the Indians, and that there is no other John Gilbert unaccounted for during this period, it seems certain that the conclusion is correct. John Gilbert, Sr., of Springfield and John Gilbert of Oronoque are one and the same person.

On Sept. 22, 1709, the Probate Court at Fairfield appointed Hannah Gilbert, widow and relict of John Gilbert, with Zachariah Blakeman, to administer upon the estate of John Gilbert, deceased, and accepted the inventory, which shows an estate of £332.13.00, including one house, a barn and shop, six acres of land adjoining, six more in the rear, twelve acres of pasture, four acres of meadow, and right in commonages. The names and ages of the children are given thus: "Thomas Gilbert 13 years old last April, Josiah 10 years old last March, John 8 years old last March, Sarah 3 year old ye 10th day of last November," agreeing perfectly with their ages as recorded upon Stratford records. The eldest daughter Hannah is not mentioned because she was of age and married to Jabez Harger. In the order of distribution, dated Nov. 1, 1710, the three sons and the two daughters are included. The final distribution was not made until Mar. 13, 1723/4, after the death of John Gilbert, Jr.

Thomas and Josiah signed their names, but Sarah made her mark. The Court ordered the interest of John Gilbert, Jr., in his father's estate to be divided between his two brothers and his sister Sarah.

Hannah, widow of John Gilbert, married second, Feb. 20, 1710 (probably 1710/11), John Osborn, Sr.

Hannah, the oldest daughter, is called also Anna and Ann, a rather common occurence with this name. Orcutt, in his History of Stratford, p. 206, calls her Anna. The probate of John Gilbert mentions Jabez Harger and Ann his wife. Cothren in his History of Ancient Woodbury, vol. 2, pp. 662 and 684, calls her Anna, both at birth and marriage.

The following are the land purchases and sales of John Gilbert that appear recorded in the Records of Stratford, Conn., vol. 2, folios 96, 100, 101, 104:

"John Gilbert by way of exchange with James Blackman hath purchased of the said Blackman four acres of upland and 1¼ acres of meadow," Jan. 29, 1684. On the same date James Blackman purchased of said Gilbert by way of exchange 2 acres of land lying at Oronock, bounded on the east with the Great River, west and south with the pasture land, north with land of Ephraim Hills. On June 21, 1692, "John Gilbert by way of Division in the woods of the three miles Division hath 12 acres of land lying in Oronock woods, bounded east with the land of James Blakman deceased, north with land of Henry Allyn deceased, west and south with common land." March 26, 1697, John Griffin of Stratford, for £30 to be paid by John Gilbert of the abovesaid town, conveyed to him several parcels of land at Oronock, both upland and meadow, a total of 17½ acres. On Mar. 5, 1704/5, John Gilbert by way of exchange purchased from Abraham Harger 6½ acres of land at Oronock Hills. On Nov. 18, 1707, he purchased from Abraham Harger 4½ acres of Division land on Oronock Hill, at a place called the Island. On Nov. 27, 1706, Obadiah Rogers of Huntington, L. I., in the province of New York, for £3 cash in hand paid by John Gilbert of Stratford conveyed to Gilbert ½ an acre of meadow and 20 rods, little more or less in Stratford, at a place called Oronock, bounded on the north with the meadow of said Gilbert and on the east with the Great River.

"March 20, 1717/8 laid out to Sarah Gilbert 12 acres in the Six-mile Division, lying between penys and Knells Rocks." [Stratford Land Records, vol. 3, p. 103 (205).] Although she was but thirteen years old, it seems that the grantee must have been Sarah, daughter of John Gilbert, who later married John Marchant and second, Zachariah Booth.

Children:

i. HANNAH,^{4} b. June 11, 1688; m. Jan. 24, 1704/5, JABEZ HARGER, son of Jabez and Margaret (Tomlinson) Harger; lived at Derby, Conn.
ii. THOMAS, b. ; d. young.
35 iii. THOMAS, b. Apr. 18, 1696; m. (1) JEMIMA SILLIMAN; (2) ELIZABETH HOWE.
36 iv. JOSIAH, b. Mar. 24, 1698/9; m. (1) ELIZABETH SMITH; (2) CLEMENCE NORTHRUP.
v. JOHN, b. Mar. 13, 1700/1; d. unm. abt. June, 1719.
vi. SARAH, b. Nov. 10, 1705; m. (1) Aug. 27, 1724, JOHN MARCHANT; (2) in 1734, ZACHARIAH BOOTH, son of Joseph and Hannah (Wilcoxson) Booth. She d. Apr. 7, 1788. John Marchant of Stratford, Conn., was probably grandson of John Marchant of Mt. Wollaston, later Braintree and Quincy, Mass., who in 1638/9 received a grant of land there at the same time as did Thomas Gilbert, grandfather of John Gilbert. Children of John and Sarah (Gilbert) Marchant were: Gurdon, John, Anne who m. John Gilbert (No. 81), son of her uncle, Thomas Gilbert (No. 35).

13. THOMAS^{3} GILBERT (Thomas,^{2} Thomas^{1}), born at Springfield, Mass., Mar. 15, 1658/9; died there, May 14, 1698; married first, Aug. 4, 1680, ABILENE MARSHFIELD, born at Springfield, Apr. 2, 1664; died there, Nov. 26, 1689; daughter of Samuel and Hester (Wright) Marshfield; married second, Apr. 9, 1690, ANNA BANCROFT, born May 5, 1663; died at Westfield,

1414 1415

Mass., Mar. 16, 1733; daughter of Thomas and Margaret (Wright) Bancroft.

Thomas Gilbert's first wife was a daughter of that Samuel Marshfield who married for his second wife Mrs. Catherine (Chapin) Gilbert, mother of this Thomas Gilbert. His second wife, Mrs. Anna (Bancroft) Gilbert, married second, Jan. 22, 1701/2, James Sexton of Westfield, Mass., by whom she had one son, James Sexton, Jr., born Nov. 9, 1702.

Thomas Gilbert and his brother Henry Gilbert each had grants of thirty acres of land in 1679 at Enfield, then in Massachusetts, now in Connecticut. It is not certain that either of them lived in Enfield at the time, but it is possible, for Enfield at that date was a part of Springfield. Henry Gilbert sold his grant before June 2, 1709.

Children by first wife:

37 i. Thomas,[4] b. Nov. 3, 1681; m. (1) Martha Barnes; (2) Mercy (Gilbert) Barnes.
ii. Samuel, b. Sept. 4, 1683.
iii. Sarah, b. Sept. 11, 1685; d. Oct. 14, 1685.
iv. A daughter, b. and d. Sept. 12, 1685.
38 v. Jonathan, b. Nov. 4, 1686; m. Margery Searles.
vi. John, b. Feb. 28, 1687/8; d. young.
vii. Ebenezer; d. Jan. 4, 1691/2.

Children by second wife:

39 viii. John, b. Mar. 16, 1690/1; m. Patience Latting.
ix. Margaret, b. Mar. 27, 1693; probably m. (1) Joshua Root, who was of Springfield or Westfield, Mass.; (2) Benjamin Stebbins of Springfield. She was living Nov. 15, 1755, at Sheffield, Mass.
x. Sarah, b. Jan. 18, 1694.
xi. Anna, b. Feb. 16, 1696/7; m. June 15, 1715, Joseph Segur of Westfield, Mass. [Marriage recorded at Springfield, Mass.]

14. Henry[3] Gilbert (Thomas,[2] Thomas[1]), born at Springfield, Mass., Mar. 1, 1660/1; died at Brookfield, Mass., Aug. 17, 1740; married first, Jan. 31, 1682/3, Elizabeth Belding (Belden), born about 1663 at Wethersfield, Conn. (or at Hadley, Mass.); died at Brookfield, Apr. 27, 1735; daughter of Samuel and Mary Belding of Wethersfield and Hadley; married second, Dec. 29, 1735, Mary (——) Wheat.

Mrs. Cicely Chapin, widow of Deacon Samuel Chapin of Springfield, in her will, dated May 16, 1676, mentions "Henry Gilbert, A prentice to John Hitchcock." Henry Gilbert took the oath of allegiance at Springfield Jan. 1, 1678, at the same time as his brother Thomas Gilbert did.

Henry Gilbert lived in Springfield until 1689 or 1690. His three oldest children were born there. He was a hayward for the Longmeadow district for several years. He was perhaps living on the grant given to him in 1679, said to have been in the present Enfield, Conn., then a part of Springfield. Enfield and Longmeadow were both originally parts of Springfield. Enfield was settled as a town in Massachusetts about 1696 and did not become a part of Connecticut until 1749. He was also a soldier and was sent in command of a squad of men, among whom was his brother Thomas, who was a builder or carpenter, to build a fort or blockhouse at Quabaug (Brookfield), starting Sept. 16, 1688. It was called Gilbert's Fort, perhaps because he took a house lot and lived adjoining it on the west, on the south side of the road. The fort was on the (later) schoolhouse lot in Brookfield, at the intersection of North Main and Maple Streets, of convenient size, having barracks for soldiers and their families and was surrounded by a stockade. It was a defence against Indian attacks from the northward, northwestward and northeastward.

Thomas Baker of Brookfield conveyed to Henry Gilbert of Brookfield, for £25, eight acres of meadow in Brookfield, "bounded west on Wickabauge Pond, north on Henry Gilbert, east on a highway, south on the Hill." Dec. 16, 1718. [Old Hampshire Deeds, vol. C, p. 597.]

Henry Gilbert of Brookfield on exchange of land with John Gilbert's land on Ware River, conveyed to said John land "upon the head of Wickabauge Pond, bounded south by the country road, north by a highway, left between his land and my son Samuel's, east and west upon the hills, 48 acres, more or less, also 12 acres granted to my son Samuel and this day conveyed to me." All which Henry Gilbert conveys to said John. "I said Henry Gilbert do covenant with my said son John Gilbert that the land is free of all incumbrances." Nov. 18, 1714. [Old Hampshire Deeds, vol. E, p. 4.]

Henry Gilbert of Brookfield "for good will and affection to my son Nathaniel Gilbert of Brookfield" conveyed "the whole of my homestead, bounded south on highway, east on Mr. Owen's land, west on Jacob Abbott's land, north on Richard Coy, 100 acres more or less; more a woodlot, bounded south on Mr. Owen, east on highway, north on Joseph Ayres, Jr., west on Josiah Beaman, 100 acres; more, the land I have in Coy's swamp, bounded east on Deacon Jennings' land, north on Coy's brook, west and south on Quabaug River; more, a piece of meadow on Coy's Brook, adjoining the last mentioned piece of land, on the west side of the brook, bounded east on the brook, north on the ministry meadow, west on the upland; more, 12 acres of upland on the plain, bounded west on Deacon Jennings' land, south on the highway, east on Sergt. Barnes, north on the ditch; more, the meadow on Richard Coy's brook, on the south side of the brook, bounded north by the brook, west by Wickabaug Pond, south on the upland, east on the highway, bounded in Brookfield book of records, Apr. 29, 1725; acknowledged Nov. 3, 1729; recorded June 26, 1730." [Old Hampshire Deeds, vol. E, p. 439 (1).]
